Bible Study Guide for Members

Study the Bible at your own pace: read the passage, keep notes, check your understanding, talk it over with your class, and invite a friend to study with you.

“But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.”

2 Peter 3:18 (ESV)

Good to know: your notes and reflection answers are private. Only you can see them.

1. Finding Bible Study

On the web, open Bible Study in the menu on the left, just below Bible. In the app, it's under More. If you don't see it, ask your church office to turn it on for you.

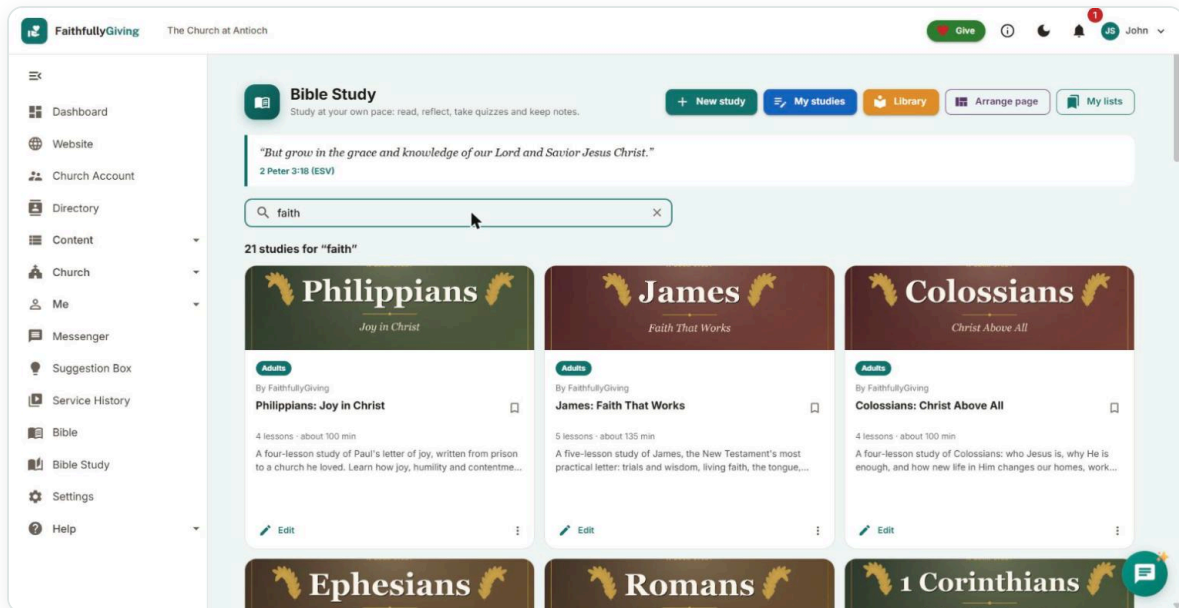

The Bible Study page. Your church chooses the featured study and the shelves.

2. Finding a study

Scroll the shelves left and right, or click See all to see a whole shelf. The search box finds studies by title, book of the Bible, topic or author.

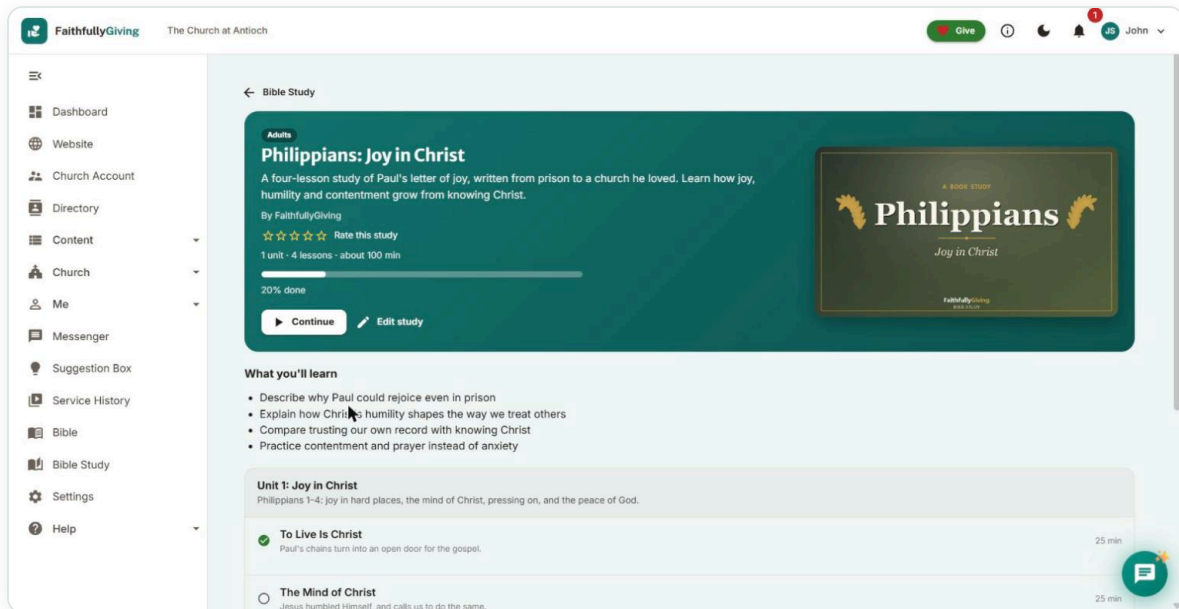

Each card shows the author, the number of lessons, about how long it takes, and your progress.

Searching for "faith".

3. Starting a study

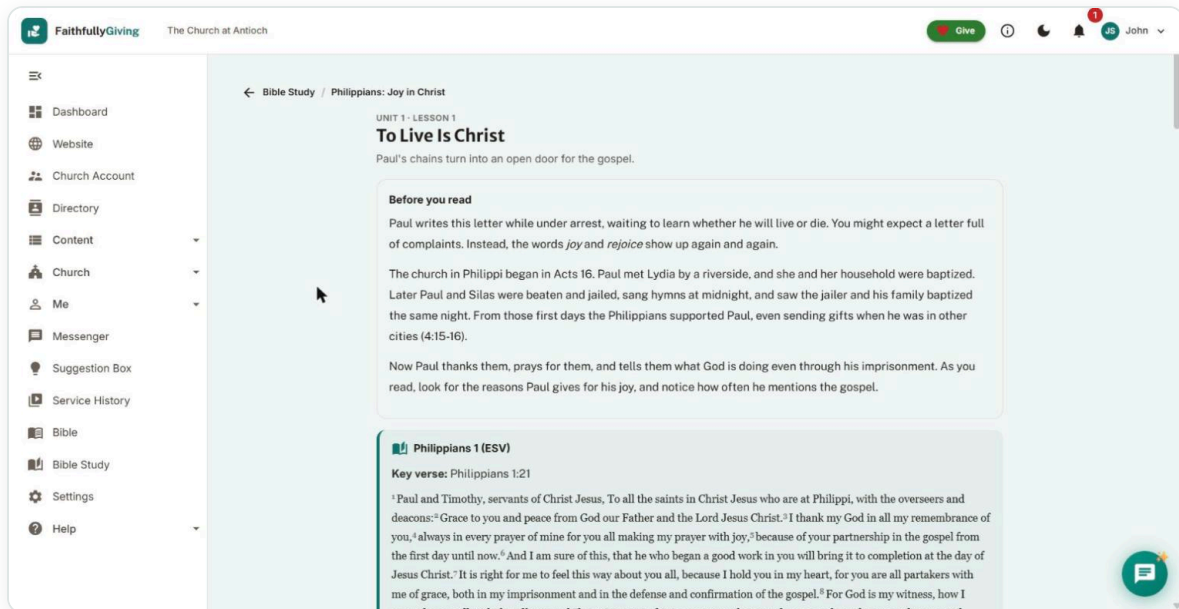

Click a card to open the study. You'll see what you'll learn and every lesson. Click Start the study, or Continue to pick up where you left off.

The study page. Lessons open one at a time: finish one to unlock the next.

4. Inside a lesson

Most lessons start with Before you read, then the Scripture passage (from the ESV), then notes that go deeper, and ideas to live it out.

The lesson starts with background, then the passage with its key verse.

Some lessons include a video, audio or slides. A video may pause to ask a question. If it says the question is required, answer it to keep watching. Some videos must be watched all the way through; you can still change the speed.

5. Quizzes

Most lessons end with a short quiz: multiple choice, true or false, or fill in the blank. Answer every question, then click Submit answers.

The screenshot shows the FaithfullyGiving website interface for 'The Church at Antioch'. On the left is a sidebar menu with options: Dashboard, Website, Church Account, Directory, Content, Church, Me, Messenger, Suggestion Box, Service History, Bible, Bible Study, Settings, and Help. The main content area is titled 'Check your understanding' with a sub-header '4 questions - pass with 70%'. It contains four questions:

- What happened because of Paul's imprisonment?
Options: A) The church in Philippi closed, B) The gospel advanced and others spoke more boldly (selected), C) Paul stopped writing letters, D) Timothy was arrested too.
- "For to me to live is ____, and to die is gain."
Answer: Christ
- Paul says God will bring to completion the good work He began in the Philippians.
Options: A) True (selected), B) False.
- How did Paul respond when some preached Christ out of rivalry?
Options: A) He asked them to stop, B) He rejoiced that Christ was proclaimed (selected).

Answering the quiz.

The screenshot shows the same FaithfullyGiving website interface, but now displaying the quiz results. At the top, it says '100% You passed. 4 of 4 right'. The four questions from the previous screenshot are shown again, each with a green checkmark indicating a correct answer:

- What happened because of Paul's imprisonment? (B) The gospel advanced and others spoke more boldly. Reference: Philippians 1:12-14.
- "For to me to live is ____, and to die is gain." (Christ). Reference: Philippians 1:21.
- Paul says God will bring to completion the good work He began in the Philippians. (A) True.
- How did Paul respond when some preached Christ out of rivalry? (B) He rejoiced that Christ was proclaimed.

Your score, which answers were right, and the verse each answer comes from. If you don't pass, click Take it again.

Typing an answer? Capital letters and punctuation don't matter, and small spelling slips in longer answers are forgiven.

6. Reflect, talk it over and notes

- Reflect: write your answer and click Save my answer. Some reflections then show an example answer to consider.
- Talk it over: questions to discuss with your family or your class.
- My notes: anything you want to remember. Notes save as you type.

The screenshot shows the FaithfullyGiving website interface for 'The Church at Antioch'. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with items: Dashboard, Website, Church Account, Directory, Content, Church, Me, Messenger, Suggestion Box, Service History, Bible, Bible Study, Settings, and Help. The main content area is titled 'Take it again' and features three sections: 'Reflect', 'Talk it over', and 'My notes'. The 'Reflect' section prompts the user to think of a hard situation and how God might use it, with an example answer about a dad's surgery. The 'Talk it over' section lists four discussion questions about Paul's imprisonment. The 'My notes' section has a text input area with the placeholder 'Write anything you want to remember from this lesson.' A 'Give' button is in the top right corner, and a user profile 'John' is visible.

Your reflection is private.

When you're done, click Finish lesson, then Next lesson.

This screenshot shows the same FaithfullyGiving website interface, but with the 'My notes' section active. The 'Reflect' and 'Talk it over' sections are still visible. The 'My notes' section now contains the text 'Pray Philippians 1:9-11 for Mom this week.' and is marked as 'Saved'. Below the notes section is a green bar with the text 'Done with this lesson?' and a 'Finish lesson' button. The footer of the page includes copyright information for 2026 FaithfullyGiving, links for Privacy, Terms, and Contact, and a Google review link. A user profile 'John' is visible in the top right corner.

My notes, and the Finish lesson button. If the lesson has a quiz, pass it first.

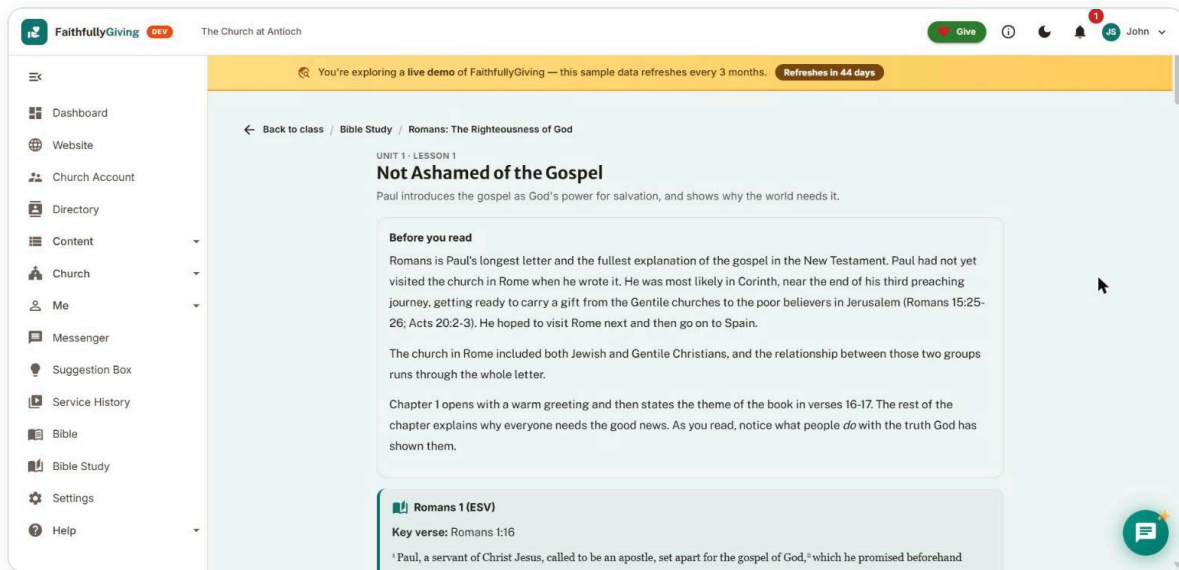

7. Your class's study and discussion

If your Bible class uses a study, open Me > Curriculums (Bible Classes). The class card says Bible Study: ..., and the class page has This class's Bible Study with each week's lesson.

Click Open next to this week's lesson to go straight to it.

The lesson opens in Bible Study with Back to class at the top, which takes you back to the class page.

Back to class returns to the class you came from.

Each lesson also has a Class discussion. Share a thought or a question, and reply to others. Only your class can see it. If you're in more than one class using the same study, it opens on the class you came from.

Teachers show a "Teacher" tag. You can remove your own posts with the trash can.

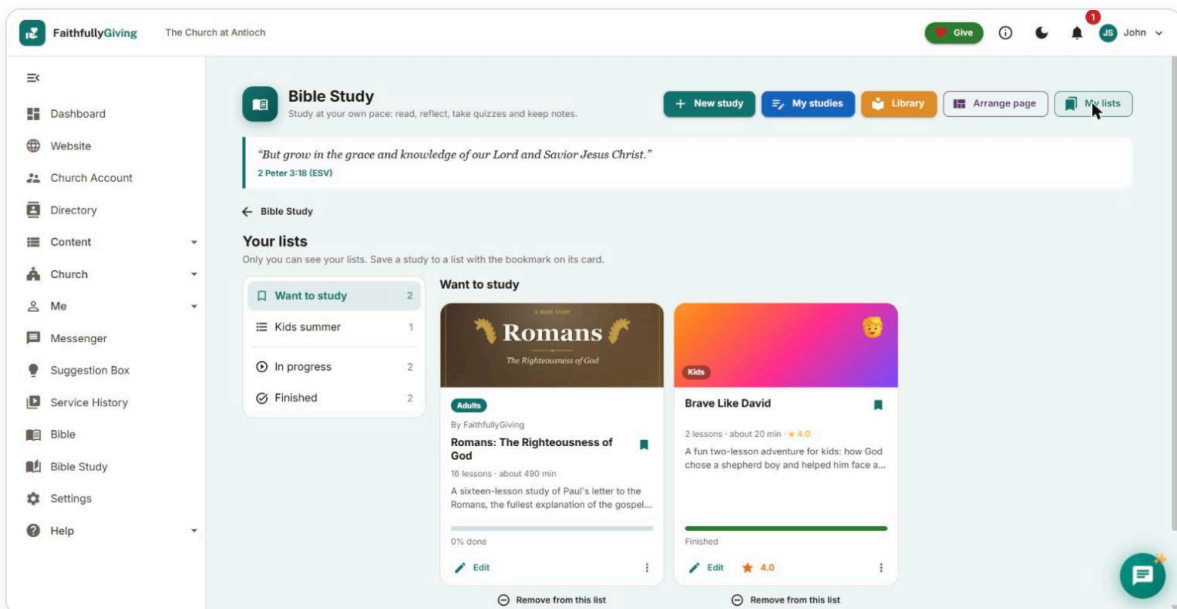

8. Your lists

Save studies to your own lists, like "Want to study" or "Summer reading". Click the bookmark on any card, tick a list, or click New list.

Save to... your lists.

Click My lists at the top of the page to see them. In progress and Finished fill in by themselves. Your lists are yours alone; no one else sees them.

My lists.

9. Rating a study

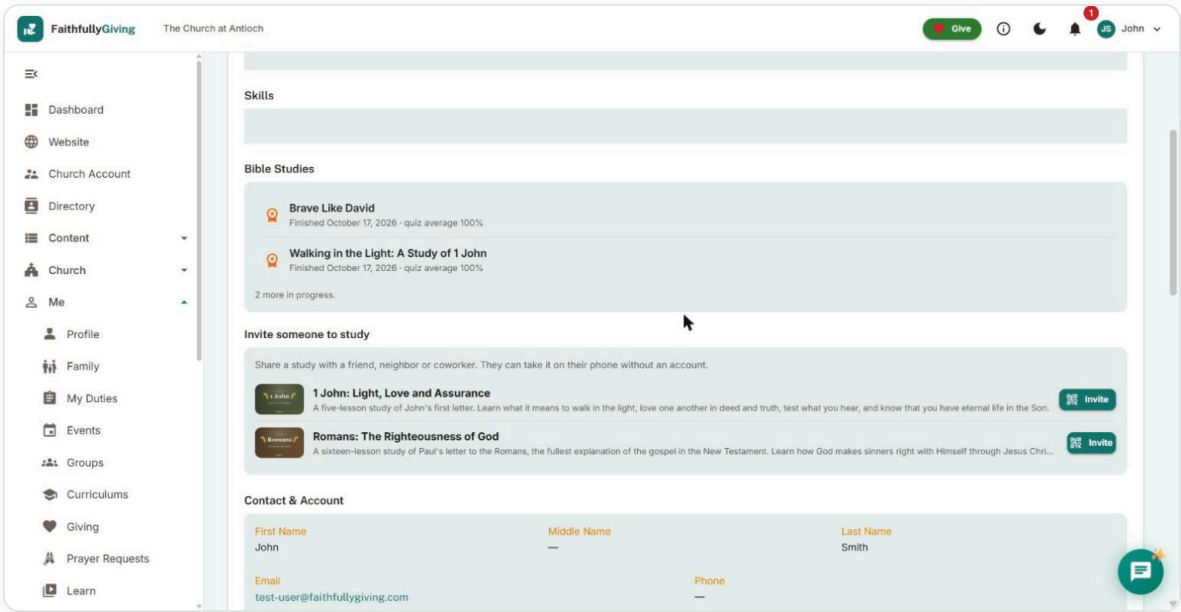

On a study's page, click the stars to rate it. You can also Add a note for the author to say what helped or what could be better.

Your rating and the average from everyone who rated it.

10. Your finished studies

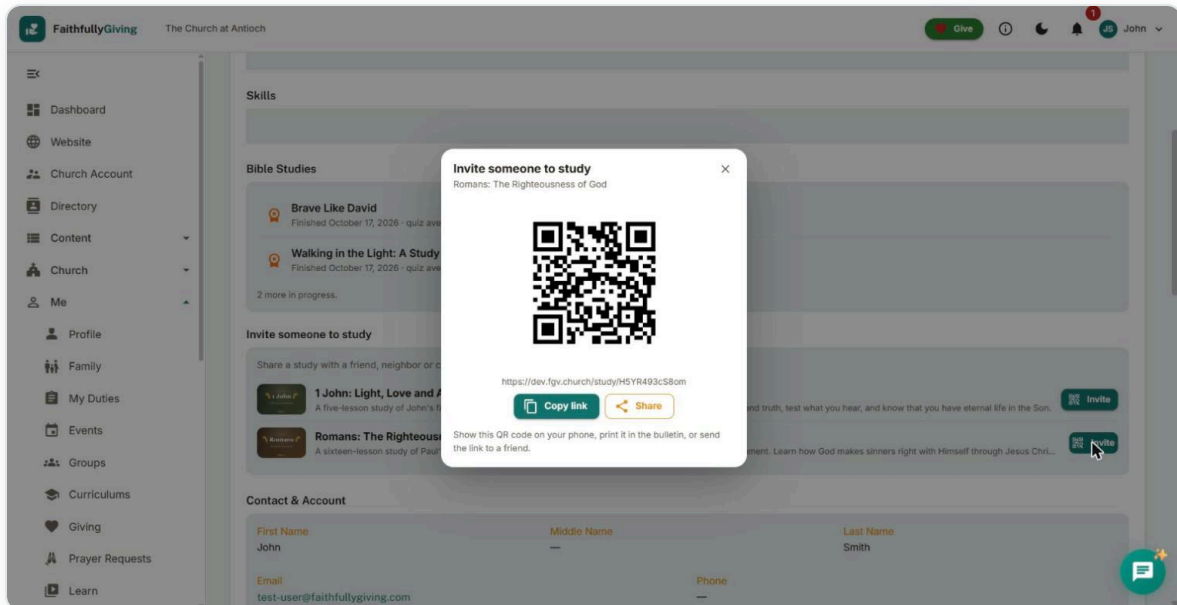

Every study you finish appears on your profile under Me > Profile > Bible Studies, with the date and your quiz average.

Bible Studies on your profile, with Invite someone to study just below.

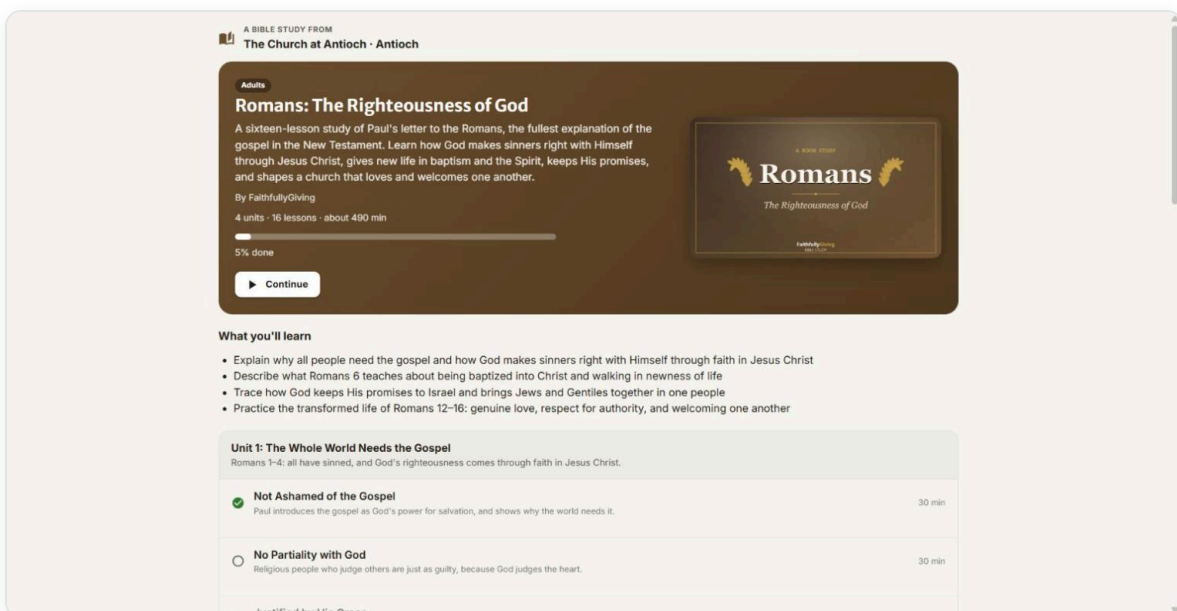

11. Inviting someone to study

Your church can make some studies public. Find them under Me > Profile > Invite someone to study, or click Invite someone on the study's page. Click Invite to show a QR code, copy the link or share it.

Let a friend scan the QR code from your phone, or send them the link.

Your friend doesn't need an account. They can take the whole study, and their progress is saved on their own phone or computer.

What your friend sees.
